City Councilmember
City of Santa Maria

Etta Waterfield was elected to the Santa Maria City Council in November 2014.

She is Executive Director of the Santa Maria Police Council, a non-profit organization that was established in August 2007 by a group of dedicated citizens who wanted to make a difference in their community (she is also a founding member). Our Mission is to support the men and women of the Santa Maria Police Department by raising funds for the purchase of safety equipment, materials and training for the department over and above what the annual operating budget allows.

As former District Representative for Senator Sam Blakeslee, she represented the Senator throughout the 15th District with an emphasis on Northern Santa Barbara County. She developed and implemented local outreach and public relations strategies, identified and vetted opportunities for and merits of district legislation, worked with range of local stakeholders to mobilize support and mitigate opposition to the Senator's policy and outreach objectives.

Prior to that, she worked over a decade with the Santa Maria Valley Chamber of Commerce Economic Development Commission (EDC) and the Santa Maria Economic Development Association (EDA) and was also involved in creating the Central Coast Regional Technology Alliance which was the predecessor organization to the California Space Authority while with the EDA. In both capacities with EDC and EDA, Etta worked to attract new businesses while also fostering economic conditions that help existing businesses expand and create new jobs.

Etta and her husband Buck have lived in Santa Maria with for 29 years. They have three grown children and eight grandchildren.
