5. MAYOR'S TASK FORCE ON YOUTH SAFETY. Recreation & Parks Director Posada gave a presentation as detailed in the Council Agenda Report. In 2016, the Council adopted a budget for the Outreach Coordinator position to address concerns regarding youth safety, and violence prevention. The City of Santa Maria and County of Santa Barbara came together and discussed with the California Cities Violence Prevention Network (Executive Director Ernesto Oliveras) on ways to address the issue. After seeing a model of the City of Santa Rosa's Violence Prevention Program and other cities' Mayor's Youth Task Force efforts, staff recommended contracting with the Violence Prevention Network to assist with the creation of a strategic plan. The core team of City staff assigned to work on the project are Santa Maria Police Department Lt. Dan Cohen, Recreation Services Manager Teresa Reyburn, Deputy City Manager Jason Stilwell, and Outreach Coordinator Eddie Galarza.

The Mayor's Task Force (acting as a Brown Act committee) would be made up of key stakeholders and leaders of established agencies and non-profits that deal with at-risk youth. Proposed members of the Mayor's Task Force would include the: Mayor and one Councilmember; Santa Barbara County Supervisors from the 4th and 5th Districts; City Manager; Police Chief; Santa Barbara County Sheriff; District Attorney; Director of Recreation & Parks; Santa Maria Bonita Elementary School District Superintendent and Santa Maria Joint Union High School District Superintendent; Boys & Girls Club; Chamber President; Community Action Commission; Council on Alcoholism & Drug Abuse; Department of Social Services; Fighting Back Santa Maria Valley; Grizzly Academy; Literacy Council; Marian Medical Center; Public Defender; Representative of the Clergy; Representative of St. John Neumann; Representative of Interfaith Ministry; Santa Barbara County Housing Authority; Santa Barbara County Probation Department; Santa Barbara Foundation; Superior Court Representative; United Way; Victim Witness Unit; 19th State District Representative; 24th Federal District Representative; and 35th Assembly District Representative.

In addition, a Technical Resource Committee would be created to: 1) assist the Mayor's Task Force with technical support; 2) facilitate the implementation or coordination of various youth safety programs; and 3) serve as the "boots on the ground" working the strategic plan. Once the strategic plan was created, the leaders of the agencies on the Mayor's Task Force would then determine what services they could provide and assign a support staff to assist on the Technical Resource Committee.

Costs to develop the program with California Cities Violence Prevention Network are projected to be about $22,000. City Manager Haydon has been in discussions with Supervisor Lavagnino's office and, in lieu of the County hiring a second outreach coordinator, there has been some discussion about the County of Santa Barbara contributing a portion of the Task Force program costs. The Task Force would meet monthly for about five (5) to six (6) times to create a strategic plan, then the committee could begin implementing the plan through the Technical Resource Committee, and the core team of City staff. Mr. Posada then introduced new Outreach Coordinator, Eddie Galarza.

Councilmember Waterfield asked what kind of time frame would be needed before results were seen.

Recreation & Parks Director Posada responded that about six (6) months would be needed to bring together the strategic plan. Sometime in the fall of 2017, the Task Force could begin implementing the strategic plan.

Councilmember Boysen asked if the Policy Advisory Committee could be expanded to include representatives from the mental health and substance abuse fields.

Recreation & Parks Director Posada responded that, currently, agencies that work with youth violence prevention were being sought to get the project started. He suggested the Technical Resource Committee might be a good place for the mental health and substance abuse specialists to participate. In addition, Recreation & Parks Director Posada indicated that the One Community Action Coalition and various community members who have expressed an interest in being involved could also be good candidates as community representatives on the Technical Resource Committee.

Mayor Patino invited Supervisor Lavagnino to the podium for comments.

Supervisor Lavagnino commented that the County of Santa Barbara had $75,000 to put toward a Youth Task Force and that he would take the proposed project cost of $22,000 back to his Board of Supervisors for approval. He also offered to help reach out to County Division Heads and help secure their participation.

Public Input

Terri Zuniga said she was encouraged by the progress she was seeing. She thanked the GI Forum and LULAC for funding a recent visit by Mr. Oliveras of the California Cities Violence Prevention Network. She also acknowledged several community members who had been very active in youth violence prevention activities over the years.

Council Discussion

There was no further Council discussion.

Direction to staff

The Mayor's appointments to a Policy Advisory Committee (Mayor's Task Force on Youth Safety) were ratified, and staff was authorized to retain the professional services of California Cities Violence Prevention Network to work on developing a youth safety strategic plan, on motion by Councilmember Waterfield, seconded by Councilmember Cordero, and carried on the following vote: 5-0
