Special Olympics
Southern California

50 YEARS

Special Olympics programs are designed to give people with intellectual disabilities the chance to develop physical fitness, sport skills, social skills, and increased self-esteem.

SUMMER BOWLING SEASON: Mid-June through Mid-August.

FALL SEASON SPORTS: August through Mid-November. Sports Offered: Soccer, Softball, Tennis, Volleyball, and Golf.

WINTER FLOOR HOCKEY SEASON: December through February.

We invite all eligible athletes, ages 8 years and up, to join our programs. New athletes wanting to participate must complete an Athlete Application for participation in Special Olympics (medical) form, which is required once every three years for all athletes. Forms are available at the Recreation and Parks Department office located at 615 S. McClelland St. or on the City's webpage at www.cityofsantamaria.org. (Note: Only original forms accepted; no faxed or e-mail copies allowed.)

COMPETITIONS: Come out and support Special Olympics athletes at our Golf Competition on September 28th at the Santa Maria Country Club.

COACHES & VOLUNTEERS: Special Olympics programs offer a wonderful opportunity to change lives through the power of sport!

For more information on how to apply as an athlete or how to become a coach or volunteer please call (805) 925-0951 ext. 1460.

"Where development has no disability."
