NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered that:

SECTION 1.
The above recitals are true and correct and are incorporated herein.

SECTION 2.
A moratorium on evictions for non-payment of rent by residential and commercial tenants impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic is imposed as set forth herein.

A. For residential properties, no landlord shall endeavor to evict a tenant in either of the following situations: (1) for non-payment of rent if the tenant demonstrates that the tenant is unable to pay rent due to financial impacts related to COVID-19; or (2) for a no-fault eviction unless necessary for the health and safety of tenants, neighbors, or the landlord. A landlord who knows that a tenant cannot pay some or all of the rent temporarily for the reasons set forth above shall not serve a notice pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1161(2), file or prosecute an unlawful detainer action based on a three-day pay or quit notice, or otherwise seek to evict for non-payment of rent.

B. For commercial properties, no landlord shall endeavor to evict a commercial tenant for non-payment of rent if a commercial tenant is unable to pay rent due to financial impacts related to COVI-19.

SECTION 3.
A landlord knows of a tenant’s inability to pay rent within the meaning of this order if the tenant, within thirty days after the date that rent is due, notifies the landlord in writing of lost income and inability to pay full rent due to financial impacts related to COVID-19, and provides documentation to support the claim. Any medical or financial information provided to the landlord shall be held in confidence, and only used for evaluating the tenant’s claim.

SECTION 4.
Nothing in this order shall relieve the tenant of liability for the unpaid rent, which the landlord may seek after expiration of the local emergency and the tenant must pay within six months of the expiration of the local emergency. A landlord may not charge or collect a late fee for rent that is delayed for the reasons stated in this order; nor may a landlord seek rent that is delayed for the reasons stated in this order through the eviction process.

SECTION 5.
Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

A. “In writing” includes email or text communications to a landlord or the landlord’s representative with whom the tenant has previously corresponded by email or text.

B. “Financial impacts related to COVID-19” include, but are not limited to: (1) for residential tenants, lost household income as a result of any of the following: (a) being sick with COVID-19, or caring for a household or family member who is sick with COVID-19; (b) lay-off, loss of hours, or other income reduction resulting from business closure or other economic or employer impacts of COVID-19; (c) compliance with a recommendation from a government health authority to stay home, self-quarantine, or avoid congregating with others during the state of emergency; (d) extraordinary out-of-pocket medical expenses; or (e) child care needs arising from school closures related to COVID-19; and (2) for commercial tenants, lost business income from full or partial closure of the business (voluntary or by mandate) to prevent or reduce the spread of COVID-19.
C. “No-fault eviction” refers to any eviction for which the notice to terminate tenancy is not based on allege fault by the residential tenant, including, but not limited to, eviction notices served pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Sections 1161(1) or 1161(5).

SECTION 6.
This order may be asserted as an affirmative defense in an unlawful detainer action. Any failure to comply with this order does not constitute a criminal offense nor give rise to civil penalties under the Santa Maria Municipal Code.
