

The Fire Department currently provides Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training in partnership with Allan Hancock College through their EMS-102 course. If you are interested in taking the course you may obtain registration information at the Allan Hancock College website.