Chinese New Year Celebration Coming to the Library

Attend a special event at the Santa Maria Public Library as Shiu-Ching McSparron brings songs, dances, and fun to Youth Services to celebrate the New Year, Chinese-style. The "Chinese New Year Celebration" will be held in the Altrusa Children's Theater on Wednesday, January 30th at 6:30 p.m. and is open to children ages five and up with their parents or guardians.

Youth Services requires a free ticket for admittance to special programs. Free tickets are now available at the Children's Desk or may be reserved by phone to be picked up later that day. A maximum of six (6) tickets may be reserved, but reservations can only be made once. This program is graciously sponsored by the Friends of the Library.

Parents, please remember that only those children, parents, and other family members who have a ticket are able to attend special events. The Library cannot accommodate infants for special events and must adhere to the age limit as requested by performers.

The Library's hours are 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Mondays through Thursdays, and 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Fridays and Saturdays. The Library is closed on Sundays.
