All-New Special Events Guide, and Parks and Facilities Guide

The Santa Maria Recreation and Parks Department is excited to present the all new 2013 Special Events Guide and the Parks and Facilities Guide. Both guides are available on the City of Santa Maria website at <http://www.ci.santa-maria.ca.us> and the People for Leisure And Youth, Inc. (PLAY, Inc.) Facebook page.

The 2013 Calendar of Special Events invokes a sense of pride and enthusiasm for Santa Maria Valley residents as they flip through alluring imagery and descriptions of their favorite traditional and new Recreation and Parks Department events to add to their 2013 calendar. Back by popular demand are the Concerts in the Park Series, Dia de los Muertos, and the Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony, along with hometown staples like the Autumn Arts Grapes and Grains Festival, Tri-The-Bull Triathlon, and Tastes of Mexico.

The all new Parks and Facilities Guide is a terrific resource for planning your next leisure activity, celebration, or meeting. Santa Maria has 26 parks with more than 2,000 acres of grass, trees, playing fields, gazebos, plenty of places to barbeque, recreational open space, and an 11-acre lake. This easy-to-use guide provides photos, descriptions, addresses, and applicable rental information for the location of your choice. Skim through the Parks and Facilities Guide today to find the perfect setting any occasion.
