

NEWS RELEASE April 11, 2013

2013 Summer Recreation Guide Now Available

The City of Santa Maria Recreation and Parks Department Summer Recreation Guide is now available. The guide features exciting new programs, classes and special events for everyone. Programs include, aquatics, adult arts, Special Olympics, dance classes, exercise and fitness, youth and teen programs, youth, teen, and adult sports, and much more. With a variety of choices, there truly is something for everyone.

For your convenience, the Recreation and Parks Department Administrative Offices (615 S. McClelland St.) is extending business hours from 7:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 18 to accommodate program registrations. After April 18, program registrations will be accepted during normal business hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Recreation guides were mailed to City residents the week of April 8; if you did not receive a guide, visit the City website at www.ci.santa-maria.ca.us or pick up a guide at one of your local community center.

While many of the classes, programs, and events are offered at low and no cost, financial assistance for registration fees may be available for qualifying individuals and families through the Recreation and Parks Department's partnership with PLAY, Inc.

Questions may be directed to the Recreation and Parks Department at (805) 925-0951 ext. 260.
