

CHARGED

PARTICLES

Electric jazz music by the Charged Particles will spark and flow from Shepard Hall on Wednesday, June 12th at 4:00pm. Jazz Times calls them a "tight and enormously talented trio" with "an electrifying, push-the-limits performance style." The Bay Area group has performed as backup in the jazz club, Yoshi's, in San Francisco, and in other jazz clubs and festivals. The musicians include Jon Krosnick on drums, Murray Low on keyboard, and Aaron Germain on acoustic and electric basses. They perform their own compositions and favorites from other contemporary composers. The musicians are all on the faculty at Stanford University.
