Altar and Booth Space for Dia de los Muertos Still Available

Altar space and vendor booths are still available for the 2013 Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead) festival taking place Sunday, November 3, 2013 from noon to 5:00 p.m. at the Veterans' Memorial Community Center located at 313 W. Tunnell Street.

If you would like to create an altar or participate as an arts and crafts vendor or non-profit community resource booth, please submit an application before noon on Friday, November 1, to the City of Santa Maria Recreation and Parks Department located at 615 S. McClelland Street. Applications are accepted through mail or walk-in delivery.

Altar and vendor applications are available at the Recreation and Parks Department or online at <http://www.cityofsantamaria.org/3087.shtml>.

Everyone is invited to this free fun-filled day of visual and musical entertainment featuring a Don Juan Tenorio play, Aztec dancers, ballet folklórico, and much more including a children's parade, youth activities, food, inflatables, craft projects, and beautiful displays celebrating the lives of deceased loved ones.

Questions may be directed to the Recreation and Parks Department at 925-0951 ext. 260.
