Mary Lee Sunseri Brings “Slightly Spooky” Program to Santa Maria Public Library

Kids, grab your costumes and join us at the Santa Maria Public Library this Saturday October 25 at 3:00pm for “Slightly Spooky,” a program filled with music and stories performed by Mary Lee Sunseri. Mary Lee has been performing for young children since 1985, and has won several national awards, including the Parent’s Choice Award, and the American Library Notable Children’s Recording Award.

This program is open to children aged 3-7 and their parents or caregivers. Youth Services requires a free ticket for admittance to their special programs. Tickets are available at the Youth Services desk or may be reserved by phone to be picked up later that day. A maximum of six (6) tickets may be reserved however; reservations may only be made once. This program is graciously sponsored by the Friends of the Santa Maria Public Library.

Parents please remember that only those children, parents, and other family members who have a ticket are able to attend our special events.

The Library’s hours are 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., Fridays and Saturdays. The Library is closed on Sundays.

Questions may be directed to Youth Services, Santa Maria Public Library, 925-0994.
